SECTION 1

The Certifying Board for Dietary Managers® (CBDM®) has a formal policy, the Code of Ethics for the Certified Dietary Manager, and procedures which incorporate due process, for the discipline of certificants. The Code of Ethics and procedures include the sanction of revocation of the certificate, for conduct which clearly indicates incompetence, unethical behavior and physical or mental impairment affecting the performance of the Certified Dietary Manager®, Certified Food Protection Professional® (CDM®, CFPP®).

Code of Ethics for the Certified Dietary Manager

The Certifying Board for Dietary Managers believes it is in the best interests of the profession and the public it serves that a Code of Ethics provide guidance to Certified Dietary Managers in their professional practice and conduct. Certified Dietary Managers have voluntarily developed a Code of Ethics to reflect the ethical principles guiding the Certified Dietary Manager in their professional practice and conduct.

The purpose of the Certifying Board for Dietary Managers is to assist in the effective management of foodservice operations, safety and welfare of the public by establishing and enforcing qualifications for dietary manager certification and for issuing voluntary credentials to individuals who have attained those qualifications. The CBDM has adopted this Code to apply to individuals who hold these credentials.

The Ethics Code applies in its entirety to certified members of the Association of Nutrition & Foodservice Professionals (ANFP). The Code applies to all CDM, CFPPs regardless of their membership status in ANFP. All of the aforementioned are referred to in the Code as “Certified Dietary Managers.”

All Certified Dietary Managers, by accepting and maintaining their CDM, CFPP credential, agree to abide by the Code.
