Offered since 1985, the CDM Credentialing Exam is part of the competency assurance program for dietary managers. A CDM, CFPP has the education and experience to competently perform the responsibilities of a dietary manager and has proven this by passing the nationally-recognized CDM Credentialing Exam and fulfilling the requirements needed to maintain certified status.

CDM, CFPPs work together with RDNs to provide quality nutritional care for clients in a variety of non-commercial settings and perform a myriad of specialized roles within a foodservice operation.

The CBDM is the credentialing agency responsible for establishing and upholding policies for and the administration of the CDM, CFPP Certification Program.

The CBDM has autonomy in decision-making for all essential certification policies and activities as demonstrated in the CBDM Policies and Procedures Manual, and in accordance with the CBDM Bylaws.

CODE OF ETHICS FOR CERTIFIED DIETARY MANAGERS
The Certifying Board for Dietary Managers (CBDM) has a formal policy, the Code of Ethics for the Certified Dietary Manager, and procedures which incorporate due process, for the discipline of certificants. The Code of Ethics and procedures include the sanction of revocation of the credential, for conduct which clearly indicates incompetence, unethical behavior, and physical or mental impairment affecting the performance of the Certified Dietary Manager.

The CBDM believes it is in the best interests of the profession and the public it serves that a Code of Ethics provides guidance to CDMs, CFPPs in their professional practice and conduct. CDMs have voluntarily developed a Code of Ethics to reflect the ethical principles guiding the CDM and to outline commitments and obligations of the CDM to self, client, society, and the profession. The Code of Ethics applies in its entirety to all CDMs (including those who are not ANFP members). The aforementioned are referred to in the Code as “Certified Dietary Managers.”

Violation of the Code of Ethics as discovered by or reported to the CBDM will be reviewed for determination of sanction to be imposed on the individual who was in violation. Notice will be served to the individual via e-mail and hard copy letter. Such individuals may appeal the decision in accordance with the appeals policy.

The CBDM has a whistleblowers policy and does not tolerate retaliation against individuals who report incidents to the CBDM. The CDM, CFPP Code of Ethics can be found at: www.CBDMonline.org/codeofethics.

According to the privacy policy posted on the CBDM website, the CBDM maintains confidentiality of candidate and certificant data and information. No information will be released without written permission from the applicant, candidate, or certificant unless required by court order or other legal process.
The CBDM has defined a scope of practice, which is validated by an extensive job analysis study conducted by a third party, and describes the procedures, actions, and processes that a CDM, CFPP is permitted to undertake in keeping with the terms of their professional certification. A Certified Dietary Manager, Certified Food Protection Professional (CDM, CFPP) has passed the nationally-recognized CDM Credentialing Exam offered by the Certifying Board for Dietary Managers (CBDM). Continuing education is required to maintain this credential. The exam is written by content experts, and administered by an independent examination services provider. The exam consists of 140 questions that have been pre-tested and proven valid and reliable, plus an additional 20 questions that are being pre-tested for use on future exams. Questions cover five competency areas that fall under these major headings: Nutrition, Foodservice, Personnel and Communications, Sanitation and Safety, and Business Operations. The CDM, CFPP credential indicates that an individual has the training and experience to competently perform the responsibilities of a Certified Dietary Manager. Earning Continuing Education (CE)

Every three years, Certified Dietary Managers, Certified Food Protection Professionals (CDM, CFPPs) are required to earn 45 continuing education hours. Nine of the 45 CE hours must pertain to Sanitation and Safety. Beginning June 1, 2019, one of the 45 CE hours must pertain to Professional Ethics. All other CE must be related to the fields of Nutrition, Foodservice, Personnel and Communications, Sanitation and Safety, and Business Operations.

All hours must be completed while actively certified and in the current three-year recertification period. No duplicate programs/titles are ever allowed, including programs/titles from facility-contracted service companies. CE hours can be earned only once for any given program and cannot be resubmitted for credit again regardless of whether the program is completed in a new recertification period.

You can enjoy many options for earning CE toward the CDM, CFPP recertification requirements: Seminars, in-services, approved books and articles, and online courses, to name a few! Browse the ANFP Products & Services Catalog for CE choices, or visit the Earn CE Now section of the ANFP website.

You may attend a program that has been Prior Approved for CE by the CBDM, or you may submit a program you have already attended that you feel may qualify for CE based on CBDM guidelines for program length, content, etc.

For more information on the types of eligible CE programs/activities and required documentation that must be uploaded for each type of CE activity, please refer to the next section of this Guide. Please note that some activity types have limits on the number of hours that can be earned in a three-year recertification period.
CBDM Prior Approved Programs

Through the Prior Approval process, programs that received CBDM Prior Approval have been submitted to the CBDM for review and approval before an event takes place. These educational activities are evaluated for CE hours value based on program content, length, and other criteria that help guarantee a quality program is delivered and is relevant to the CDM, CFPP Scope of Practice. Requests for Prior Approval should be submitted at least eight weeks before an event takes place. Only the program coordinators/administrators may submit a program for CBDM Prior Approval through the CBDM Prior Approval application process.

Examples of CBDM Prior Approved programs include those offered by ANFP such as the ANFP Annual Conference and Expo (ACE) and ANFP Chapter meetings, provided that chapter meeting planners have submitted the program in advance and have met the requirements to be a CBDM Prior Approved program. Planners of industry-related meetings may apply for Prior Approval from the CBDM and can confirm with you whether a meeting has been designated CBDM Prior Approved for CE. ANFP Food Protection Connection articles, Nutrition Connection articles, most ANFP online courses, and some ANFP books are also CBDM Prior Approved for CE, and the program description will indicate this.

Calculating CE Hours

Calculation of CE hours is based on the minutes of attendance/participation time in structured learning activities. One CE hour is equivalent to 60 minutes of attendance/participation. A minimum of 30 minutes of attendance/participation is required for a program to be eligible toward recertification requirements. Thereafter, CE hours will be accrued in 15 minute increments. CE hours can not be reported for breaks, meals, test time during a class, award sessions, or networking activities.

Continuing Competence Levels

The CBDM is moving from a continuing education model toward a continuing competence model for maintaining the CDM, CFPP credential. CDM, CFPPs should identify their own individual needs for professional competence and then develop a plan for completing specific continuing education to meet those needs.

The CBDM has a Gap Analysis Tool designed to assist you in identifying your needs and focusing/prioritizing your CE opportunities. Access the tool here: www.CBDMonline.org/cdm-resources/gap-analysis-tool.

The CBDM has identified continuing competence levels and added these delineations to all ANFP education products and other Prior Approved programs. Find additional information about competence levels at www.ANFPonline.org/CCL.

June 2014 began the self-reporting process whereby CDM, CFPPs were required to track and submit their own CE hours into their record for the current three-year recertification period.

All CDM, CFPPs are required to earn, self-report and upload required documentation via the My Certification page of their record for a minimum of 45 continuing education (CE) hours by May 31 of the last year of their three-year recertification period. Nine of the 45 CE hours must pertain to Sanitation and Safety and beginning June 1, 2019, one CE hour must pertain to Professional Ethics. You are permitted to earn more than nine CE hours in Sanitation and Safety and more than one hour in Professional Ethics. Additional CE hours will be automatically converted to General CE hours. CE hours can be earned and reported only while actively certified and in the current three-year recertification period. To verify when your recertification period ends, log into the My Certification page of your record.

Effective June 1, 2019, CDM, CFPPs are required to submit all CE hours electronically by the end of their three-year recertification period. Effective June 1, 2020, when submitting a CE program, all required documentation must also be electronically uploaded via the My Certification page. Physical, e-mailed, or faxed documentation sent to CBDM will not be accepted or returned. If you do not have your own computer, there are other viable solutions such as using mobile devices, tablets, or public computers that may be available at a local library. Failure to submit all required CE will result in being placed into the CE Audit.

Education programs submitted for CE toward recertification requirements must be on topics related to Nutrition, Foodservice, Personnel and Communications, Healthcare, Sanitation and Safety, and Business Operations. CE hours can be earned only once for any given program. Once CE hours have been earned for a specific program, the program cannot be resubmitted for CE hours again, regardless of whether it is a new three-year recertification period. Also, CE hours earned in excess of the required minimum CE hours do not carry over from one, three-year period to another. View additional information on recertification requirements at www.CBDMonline.org/maintain-your-credentials/maintaining-your-credentials.

For more information on the types of eligible CE programs/activities and required documentation that must be uploaded for each type of CE activity, please refer to the Qualifying Activities for Continuing Education section of this Guide.

Step-by-Step Guide to CE Self-Reporting

Note: To ensure CE activities are recognized and recorded in your CE record, please do not enter CE activities until at least 24 hours after your certification has been activated or reinstated.

1. Log in at www.CBDMonline.org to self report CE and upload required documentation.
2. Under “My Account Links,” go to “My Certification.”
3. Select “Report CE.”
4. Complete all pertinent fields for your CE activity. If it is a Prior Approved program, be sure to select “Prior Approved” for program type and enter the CBDM approved provider number as listed on your certificate of completion. Provide all other requested information.
5. Select “Add Document.” Upload all required documentation as specified. Select “Save” after uploading each document.
6. Select “Submit” after uploading the required documentation as specified for each CE activity reported. “Submitted” status will show for programs for which the CE hours were submitted and required documentation was uploaded electronically.
7. Continue this process for each CE activity that you have completed and wish to submit for the current recertification period.

If you need to edit an entry on your My Certification page, please e-mail info@CBDMonline.org or call 800.323.1908. Access the tutorial at www.CBDMonline.org/maintain-your-credentials/ceselfreporting.
Overview and Purpose of CE Audit
The purpose of the CE Audit is to assure compliance with the CBDM recertification requirements to maintain the CDM, CFPP credential.

As credentialed professionals, CDM, CFPPs have worked hard to earn and maintain their professional certification. CBDM policies and procedures for CE Self Reporting and the CE Audit are designed to uphold the integrity of the credential and help CDM, CFPPs gain a professional edge that meets defined standards and demonstrates continued competence.

Effective June 1, 2019, CDM, CFPPs are required to submit all CE hours electronically by the end of their three-year recertification period via the My Certification page of their record. Also, all required documentation for each reported program must be electronically uploaded via the My Certification page. Physical, e-mailed or faxed documentation sent to the CBDM will not be accepted or returned.

Individuals who fail to meet all recertification requirements will have their certification terminated. To become certified again as a CDM, CFPP, an individual must qualify for the exam under a current pathway of eligibility, submit an exam application with fees for review and approval, pass the CDM Credentialing Exam, and activate their certification within one year of passing the exam.

CE Audit Selection
Each year, CDM, CFPPs whose three-year recertification period ends May 31 may be randomly selected for the CE Audit. Also, CDM, CFPPs who do not comply with regulations and laws related to the practice of the professional CDM, CFPP (refer to the Code of Ethics on www.CBDMonline.org) may be selected for the CE Audit.

The CBDM made a policy change in January 2019 requiring CDM, CFPPs to meet all CE requirements (45 total continuing education hours, including nine Sanitation/Safety CE hours and one Professional Ethics CE hour) by May 31 of the last year of their three-year recertification period. Individuals not meeting this requirement, would have their CDM, CFPP credential terminated. This policy was to be implemented as of May 31, 2020.

Due to the current COVID-19 pandemic and the unprecedented challenges that we find our professional dealing with, the CBDM has made the decision to postpone implementation of this policy. Therefore, current recertification policies will remain in place.

What this mean for me? For individuals whose three-year recertification period ends this year, i.e., May 31, 2020, your certification will not be terminated for not meeting the CE hour requirements. You will automatically be placed in the CE Audit process. Notification of your selection for CE Audit will be e-mailed to you at the e-mail address on file in your record. To avoid missing critical communications about required actions and deadlines, make sure your contact information in your record is accurate and current. Failure to meet all recertification and CE Audit requirements will result in your certification being terminated.

Watch your e-mails for updates to CBDM polices or other matters regarding the CDM, CFPP Certification Program. You may also contact CBDM at info@CBDMonline.org or 800.323.1908, select option 1 (Monday - Friday, 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. CST).

During the CE Audit, the CE programs will be reviewed for compliance with CBDM policies, including and not limited to the following:

- Program at least 30 minutes long
- Program content relates to CDM, CFPP Scope of Practice
- Program is not a duplicate entry in current or during a prior recertification period
- All required documentation is submitted and each document complies with CBDM policy
- Certificate of completion includes your name, program title, date, and CE hours awarded

Your CE auditor will send you e-mails regarding actions required to meet all requirements and is also available to answer your questions. CE records are reviewed in the order in which they are submitted and received.
If an individual submits information that is intentionally deceptive, this is unethical. Examples include falsifying CE records and resubmitting CE programs for which CE credit has already been earned and reported. An individual who has committed an ethical violation will lose their certification and be subject to sanctions as determined by the CBDM.

Individuals selected for the CE Audit will be notified of such in writing by June 1 (or the first business day thereafter) via e-mail at the address on file in their record. Their CE record (including reported CE activities and uploaded required documentation) will be reviewed for compliance with CBDM recertification and CE Audit policy. Failure to meet recertification and CE Audit requirements by the stated deadlines will result in being CE Audit Failed and their certification will be terminated.

• Make sure that you take the required actions to keep your certification status active. CE programs can be earned and reported only when your certification is active.

• Activate your certification within one year from the date that you pass the exam. Failure to do so will result in your certification being terminated.

• Pay annual certification fees on time to avoid late and reinstatement fees as well as to avoid losing your certification. CDM, CFPPs receive their dues invoice during the CE Audit process and should pay the annual certification fee timely. If you are in the CE Audit and have been granted an extension, certification fees must be paid by September 30. Failure to do so will result in your certification being terminated.

• Complete and report 15 CE hours and upload the required documentation annually for each of the three years in your recertification period.

• Don’t wait until the last few weeks or months of your recertification period to complete the required 45 CE hours.

• To verify when your recertification period ends, log into the My Certification page of your record.

• File hard copies of documentation for completed CE activities. Scan these documents in preparation to electronically upload the required documentation via the My Certification page of your record.

• Within a week of completing a CE program, report the program and electronically upload required documentation via the My Certification page of your record. Retain copies of CE records and documentation as uploaded.

• Failure to meet recertification requirements by 11:59 PM CST May 31 of the third year of your three-year recertification period will result in your CDM, CFPP certification being terminated.

• Log into your CE record regularly to check how many CE hours you have reported and the required documentation that you have uploaded.

• Prior to May 31 of the year that your three-year recertification period ends, make sure that at least 45 CE hours have been submitted and the required documentation uploaded via the My Certification page, including nine CE hours related to Sanitation and Safety and beginning June 1, 2019, one CE hour pertaining to Professional Ethics.

• Earn, report and upload required documentation for extra CE hours so that if you are CE Audited and some CE hours are rejected, you may still have reported enough hours to meet the recertifications and CE Audit requirements.

• If you require edits be made to a CE program that you reported via the My Certification page, please contact CBDM for assistance at 800.323.1908 or info@CBDMonline.org.

• Make sure the contact information in your record is accurate. All individuals are responsible for keeping current their contact information on file in their record. ANFP and CBDM are not responsible for missed communications due to incorrect e-mail or mailing address in your record or for e-mail messages you failed to access from a spam folder. Also, ANFP and CBDM are not responsible for any missed communications regarding any ANFP or CBDM matters for individuals who chose to opt out or unsubscribe from messages sent by ANFP or CBDM.

• Consider completing CBDM Prior-Approved programs. When reported as a Prior Approved program type and requested program information is submitted via the My Certification page, the certificate of completion is the only required document that must be uploaded.

• All CBDM Prior Approved programs administered by ANFP and available through the ANFP Marketplace are audit-proof and guaranteed approved for CE credit when all requirements for completion are met.

• Upon successful completion of an ANFP online course (including completing activities, quizzes, tests, and course evaluation), CE hours will be recorded automatically on your My Certification page! For ANFP CE programs, the certificate of completion does not need to be uploaded.

• Continue earning CE hours during the CE Audit process. If your record is not under review by CBDM, you will be able to access your CE record to report CE hours and upload required documentation. Be aware that there are stipulations for how the CE hours may apply.

• Individuals who request and are eligible for and granted an extension during the CE Audit may use the CE hours to remove CE deficiencies identified during the CE Audit. The activity must be reported and required documentation uploaded via the My Certification page.

• If an extension is not required or granted during the CE Audit, the hours earned after May 31 of the CE audit year will count toward the next three-year recertification period.

• Your next three-year recertification period begins as indicated in the e-mail notice from CBDM when you pass the audit.
